

As a private citizen, I recommend the FCC oppose rule changes to ownership requirements contained in Docket 02-277. Diversity of opinion in the media is essential to the workings of a republic like ours, and the proposed rule changes will not result in increased diversity.